Student Council Organization Structure

JUIT Youth Club

Jaypee University of Information Technology (JUIT) has a student council named as JUIT Youth Club (JYC). An extremely active body, which has a number of Clubs and Committees under its domain. The extra co-curricular activities of the students are organized as major and minor events throughout the year. It is the body which widens student's view from academics to various fields such as sports, literary, cultural and technical and provides opportunity to explore them. A student is encouraged to become member of minimum one and preferably more clubs so as to develop his personality in the field of his liking and aspiration. It helps students acquire qualities like good communication skills, event management, team work, sportsmanship and leadership. Focusing on technical, literary, sports, and cultural scopes, these competitive activities, apart from serving as a relief from intense academic load, present an opportunity to instill confidence, encourage teamwork and give students a strong sense of achievement and belonging.

Its Office bearers are selected in a competitive manner and include President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Following procedure is followed for a student to become the member of JYC:

1. For holistic development of students, they can join maximum of 2 clubs and 1 committee.
2. Interested students are required to fill a form on the basis of which a brief interview is conducted.
3. Students in the 1st and 2nd year of their academic programmes can be general body members.
4. Students of third and fourth year work as coordinators for successful completion of events.

FROM THE DESK OF EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Having seen the event grow and gain popularity among the masses, it gives me immense pleasure to welcome you all to yet another edition of JUIT Youth Parliament. With a magnificence and grandeur unlike any of its previous editions, JYP'19 provides the participants with an opportunity to put to use their diplomatic abilities, and showcase the best of their oratory skills and wit. Recognizing the challenges and controversies that developed in the aftermath of certain judgments passed by the Supreme Court, JYP strives to be open, inclusive and democratic in every way possible.

We wish to promote growth and exposure in thought and expression. And I hope, each one of us gets to take back some experience of substance. Best Wishes!

PROCEEDINGS: DAY 1

The 1st Day of the Lok Sabha started with the Secretary General declaring the council open. National Anthem and Oath taking ceremony followed and the proceedings started with the Scribe, Ms. Vaani Mahesh Rana taking the attendance of the parliamentarians. The attendance concluded and the simple majority was established at 40.

Mr. Narendra Modi, as the leader of the house, started with the statements addressing the agenda and through it, his fellow parliamentarians. The leader of the Opposition, Mr. Mallikarjun Kharge, followed Modi's speech of Shayaris, with some of his own. With these 2 speeches the momentum of the house was set at a high note, but came down bluntly owing to monotonous speeches and extensive use of the Points of Order (which in all essence were just twisted use of Points of Information).

Discussion Hour was in motion next, and the council focused with full exuberance on topics of Religious and Gender inequality. While the opposition challenged the bill on Triple Talaq in regard of the nature and duration of the punishment that is to be enforced, the ruling party made believe the council on all accounts that the provisions of the Bill were foolproof and necessary provisions, wherever necessary, had been made.

With a Point of Parliamentary enquiry, the parliamentarian of the INC made his feelings known about the how the rulings by simple majority is harming his party and the motions which they wish to raise. Many such unnecessary inquiries and deviation from the agenda at hand, sure made it easy to notice how vaguely the parliamentarians had researched the content.

In a council where marriage was termed as "contract" and Ayodhya as the "land of Lord Ram", it was but a wonder to see the EB giving chance to almost every parliamentarian to put forth their opinions in the house.

After the high tea, the zero hour was put into motion and saw bombardment of some really good questions from the opposition side which left the ruling party chasing their tails and answering with but the play of words. The decorum of the house was disrupted with blame games, allegations and cross talks which left the session without any closure and hopes for a better discussion the next day.

LOK SABHA – HOUSE OF THE PEOPLE; MAD PEOPLE.

- Prashant Gautam

From flying paper planes in an important session to shouting at top of their lungs in Parliament, not-so-serious antics are common in the house. This articulation emphasizes over our applauded and grandstander members of Parliament.

Initially the session seemed to be a blend of stand-up and interaction where honourable Prime Minister of India, Mr. Narendra Damodardas Modi addressed the fellow parliamentarians with a motivational speech about how his government always been a vocal proponent of women empowerment. As the flag-bearer of Indian civilizational values, Mr. Modi said that the BJP has always championed political upliftment of women, in governance or within the party organisation itself. You need facts? All hail BJP IT cell.

While General VK Singh tried to fuel the Mandir-Masjid drama again, the member of the opposition rightly pointed that Ram Rajya can be ushered through education and not by constructing a grand temple. Congress as always kept on defining themselves as the party of government activism; the party that says that government makes you richer, smarter and get the chickweed out of your lawn. From 'shayari' to poetry, MPs like Mallikarjun Kharge, Narendra Modi and Arun Jaitley have all had witty exchanges in the Parliament that have left the house in splits.

But no doubt both the parties being different sides of the same coin, have the art of looking for controversies and troubles finding them everywhere, diagnosing them incorrectly and applying the wrong remedies. However hard you try to span the history but it becomes mere failure in front of researched content.

BJP piggybacking on propaganda movies to keep morale high among its troops from reel to real, 'How is the josh' has become the slogan of the season the council's response proved it. The council also featured A Hug, Wink and 'Earthquake' Rahul Gandhi wants us to believe that a new-generation, metrosexual gentleness can combat hard-line machismo. The Reluctant Heir was suddenly looking like an eager leader. One of the popular caricatures that capture #JaaduKijhappi shows Gandhi discovering that the prime minister's chest is not quite the 56 inches it has been made out to be. When it comes to romance, we know that courtship is the easy part of building any relationship. But the real work of keeping the Executive Board interested will take more than headline-grabbing charm and chutzpah.

You know it's better for one to keep the mouth shut and give the impression that one is stupid than open it and remove all the doubts. 'Hazon Jawabon se Acchi hai Meri Khamoshi, Na Jaane Kitne Sawalon ki Aabru Rakhe,' which literally translates to: 'It is better to be quiet than to give a thousand answers, for who knows the number of questions whose dignity will remain intact.' The other not-worth speaking parliamentarians sat quietly and excluded themselves from council, thinking they'll be called elite but were just a base.

In a nutshell the first day of the session was nothing but a true reminiscent of the Indian Parliament; load of trash talk and wordplay but no result yielding arguments.

CHITTY-CHITS

- 1) Paresh Rawal to Sonia Gandhi : First of all it's 'Rawal' not 'Raval'. Samay ane dijiye apko pta chal jaega Babu Bhaiya Ka kamaal!
- 2) Rahul Gandhi : Is baar Eid par bakri khaenge ya siwayiyaan
Naqvi Sahab : hamari zubaan meethi hai, siwayiyaan he khaenge
- 3) Harsimrat Kaur to Arun Jaitley : Bhot hard! Bhot hard!
- 4) Rahul Gandhi to Sonia Gandhi : Mummy Mai theek to bol Raha hu na? Bta dijiye!

YOUTH TAKING THE REIGNS OF POWER

-Aryan Aggarwal

Today we witness the Power of our enlightened Youth and also hit the harsh reality grounds with the affairs of our Country. The Topics on which the house went head to head was 'Triple Talaq', a very recent topic and as expected there were lots of opinions on the topic. Most importantly, we asked the right questions, i.e.

1. Why men are given this right & not women?
2. What is the point of separation by just saying those 3 words?
3. Is it Justified or not?
4. What are the effects that are caused on the Women : Emotionally, Mentally and Physically?

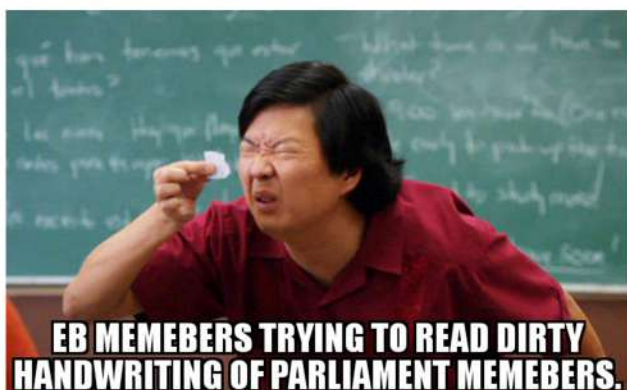

Many influencing leaders of the house, like Shashi Tharoor, Mallikarjun Kharge, Narendra Modi, Arun Jaitley amongst others, set the tempo for their fellow members and ignited the Q&A round, there were also comical statements from Politicians like Rahul Gandhi, Owaisi and Ram Kripal Yadav. Even the Executive Board didn't leave the opportunity to make fun of Mr. Rahul Gandhi. When they found a chit floating in the parliament asking Mr. Rahul Gandhi about the time of Chotta Bheem, the EB introduced an Informal Session and said "Kisi aur ko Maze lene hai Rahul Gandhi Ji ke?", to which Arun Jaitley promptly replied: "Poori Duniya hi le rhi hai".

Rahul Gandhi tried making a comeback in the zero hour where he mocked the ruling party and asked "Agar Mandir Banega toh Time bhi bata dijiye"

In his Reply Gen. V K Singh defended the point of view of the ruling party and stated the intent of the government to make the Ram Mandir and pointed "Ram Mandir banega aur Supreme Court ke decision se banega".

Another talking Point was when the opposition party asked about why the laws have not been implemented and why woman are not been given equal rights. In reply Mr. Arun Jaitley stepped up and said "60 sal ho gaye aaplog so rahe the kya?" which created a buzz in the opposition campus and a heated moment was created but his words really moved and left the opposition in shock.

These Were the highlights of Day 1 and it was a brilliant display from both the parties who were going neck to neck with each other just to prove the other wrong, The EB Members have asked both parties to bring new Matter and throw light on them in the Day 2 Session only time will tell which party will outshine the other.

GLIMPSES OF THE DAY

MASTERCHEF-2019

Cooking is one of the strongest ceremonies for life. When recipes are put together, the kitchen is a chemical laboratory involving air, fire, water and the earth.

On 14th September 2019, Health and Environment Club of Jaypee University of Information Technology organized the Master-Chef Competition to showcase the cooking skills of the college students at "Basket Ball Ground". The event was graced by Registrar Major General Rakesh Bassi, Director and Academic Head Prof. Dr. Samir Dev Gupta and Prof. Dr. M.J.Nigam, JYC Faculty Incharge Dr. Amit Srivastava. The Judging panel consisted of Mrs. Vibha Bassi, Mrs. Kumkum Nigam and Mrs. Sarika Srivastava. Dr. Anupriya Kaur, HoD HSS was the Coordinating Chairman of the event.

There were total 13 teams, consisting 2-4 members, participated in the event. The theme of the event was "Indian and Continental". The competition was restricted for 75 minutes of cooking time. Basic amenities like gas stoves, cylinder, and all the ingredients (including vegetables) were provided to students in advance, by JUIT, therefore the participants need not to bring anything from their own.

Students participated with full enthusiasm and high zeal and came up with exotic and delicious dishes. The dishes were a visual treat presented in an artistic and aesthetic style. The ambience was very exuberant accompanied by our budding singers.

And in the end the prizes were distributed: the first prize was bagged by a group of four- Silky Agarwal, Ananya Sood, Nadirun Nisha and Arthja Shukla. The first runner ups were Pranjal, Vineet, Shruti and Deepti, and the second runner ups were Teammates Tripti, Priyansha, Anjali and Sulbha.

'MasterChef 2019' not only provided a platform for the students to foster their creativity and culinary skills but also allowed them to interact with teachers outside academic setup.

Sub: Regarding JYC 2020-21 Activities and Budget

Dear Sir

As you know that JYC 2020-21 has been formed and it has started functioning as well. So far, we have successfully conducted two events – Qafila, Literary Club event, during March 27-28, 2021, and We Care, Environment Club event, during April 6-7, 2021. Both the events were conducted via online mode and we got good number of participants.

JYC 2020-21 is planning to organize few more events in the during the semester and early next semester.

As you know, JYC fund is collected through the students' contribution. Although this year (2020-21) we have not collected any fund from the students but we are still left with approximately Rs 12,00,000/- which has been raised last years. This fund actually has been raised from current 2nd, 3rd and final year students.

Since, as per University's mandate and requirement of different Accreditation Bodies, it is required to organize students' activities of different kinds. We are trying to organize different activities of such types which not only fit with our requirements but also fit with the requirements of accreditation bodies. Therefore, this fund can be used for organizing different events for current JYC (2020-21).

I've attached JYC Budget 2020-21 along with this application for your kind consideration. The snapshot of budget is as follows:

- (a) Total Fund available = Rs 12,00,000
- (b) Expected expenditure= Rs 2,26,000
- (c) Amount left after JYC 2020-21 = Rs 9,74,000

You are requested to suggest the necessary changes, if any, and approve the same.

Thanks for all your support and guidance.

Regards

Dr. Amit Srivastava
