Name of the Activity: A Trek and Swachhta Abhiyaan

Date: Nov 17, 2024

Place: Maa Tara Devi Temple, Shoghi, Shimla

The NCC organized a trek to the peaceful Tara Devi Temple on November 17, 2024. This adventure combined devotion with nature, helping cadets strengthen discipline, teamwork, and resilience. It was an opportunity to connect with nature, embrace challenges, and bond with fellow cadets through a shared experience.

Program Highlights:

Assembling at 7:45 am :The trek began with all cadets assembling at the starting point, eager and excited for the journey ahead. Refreshments were provided during the assembly, ensuring everyone was energized and ready for the adventure.

Trek Start: The group set off on the trek, making their way towards the Tara Devi Temple, with cadets walking in unison, displaying energy and determination.

Mandir Visit: Upon reaching the Tara Devi Temple, cadets took time to enjoy the peaceful surroundings, reflecting on the spiritual significance of the visit.

Bhandara: After the temple visit, cadets participated in a bhandara, sharing a meal together, which strengthened their sense of community and unity.

Cleaning Drill: A cleaning drill followed, where cadets actively contributed to maintaining the cleanliness of the area, reinforcing the importance of environmental responsibility.

Group Photograph: The group captured a memorable moment with a photograph, preserving the camaraderie and spirit of the trek.

Back to College Campus: The trek concluded with cadets returning to the college campus by 4 pm, bringing the enriching and fulfilling journey to a close.
