Event Objective: The event aimed to immerse participants in the role of investors, offering hands-on experience in analyzing real-world business pitches. Participants critically evaluated market potential, financial models, and risks, while managing a limited purse and making strategic investment decisions under a strict 7-minute time limit.

Event Overview:

Concept:

The event was designed as a mock version of the popular TV show Shark Tank, where participants acted as investors rather than entrepreneurs. Each team was given a virtual purse of ₹1.5 crore and had to strategically allocate their investments across six business pitches.

Format:

- i. Pitch Presentation: Teams were presented with six business ideas inspired by actual Shark Tank pitches. Each pitch included key details such as business valuation, market growth potential, revenue, and challenges.
- ii. Time-Limited Analysis: Teams had 7 minutes after each pitch to analyze and decide how much they wanted to invest.
- iii. Expert Guidance: Each team was paired with an industry expert to guide their decision-making process. Teams were also allowed to collaborate with one another for additional insights.

- iv. Judging Criteria: Teams were evaluated based on the accuracy and strategy of their investment decisions, considering the current status and performance of the companies they chose to invest in.

Execution:

The event fostered an engaging and competitive environment. Participants experienced the thrill of making high-stakes decisions under pressure while sharpening their analytical and collaborative skills.

Event benefits :

- i. Practical Exposure: Participants gained a practical understanding of investment strategies, financial analysis, and market evaluation.
- ii. Collaborative Learning: Collaboration with team members and experts allowed participants to learn from diverse perspectives, fostering teamwork and critical thinking.
- iii. Real-World Insights: Exposure to actual Shark Tank business cases helped participants understand the challenges and opportunities faced by real companies.
- iv. Decision-Making Skills : The time constraint honed participants' ability to make quick, informed decisions, a crucial skill in the investment world.
