National Cadet Corps

Activity Name: ATT (Army Attachment camp)

Venue: Pathankot

Date: Nov 19 to Dec 01, 2023

On November 20, 2023, two Cadets of NCC JUIT commenced their journey to Mamun Cantt, Pathankot, for the ATT (Army Attachment Camp). By 9:00 pm, we reached near Mamun chowk and then boarded a military bus to reach Mamun Cantt. Havaldar Nirmal, from the PI staff of 1 HP Boys BN, accompanied us from the beginning of our journey.

Upon reaching Mamun Cantt, we were officially welcomed by soldiers of 16 Punjab. SUO (Senior under Officer) Hardik Sangal of JUIT was appointed as the camp senior, and barrack seniors were also designated. Later, we had dinner and were directed to our sleeping quarters.

On November 21, our camp officially commenced with a welcome speech by the Commanding Officer of 16 Punjab. The following day, we were honored with a welcome address by Commander Brigadier Sashi Bhushan Ghildiyal VC. Each day was filled with excitement as we woke up early for roll call at 6 am, followed by PT (Physical Training) involving running, push-ups, and other exercises. Subsequently, we were divided into five squadrons, each consisting of 10 members, named after PVCs

(Param Vir Chakra recipients). Daily visits were organized to various army regiments, including the Army Engineering Corps, Army Aviation Corps, Army Air Defence, EME (Electronics and Mechanical Engineering), Armoured Corps, and Artillery Regiment. We also visited 16 Punjab on the eve of Guru Purav.

After five days of the camp, preparations for our cultural night began. Concurrently, competitions, such as Night Navigation, Best in Physicals, Sports, and Survival, started. Apart from sports, every event was organized at the squadron level. As a part of Pandey Squadron, we won Night Navigation and performed exceptionally well in Survival. Additionally, Pandey Squadron presented a Nukkad Natak during the Cultural Night.

On the last day of the camp, we had dinner with the commander, and with memories of all the adventures and joyful moments, we bid farewell to the camp.
